

Please provide channels a la carte on cable and satellite. I pay too much money for watching so few channels. With prices going sky high in gas and utilities, I could sure use the extra money I would save by paying only for channels that I actually watch, some of them important, like the national and local news channels. Thank you.